

Laguna / JAQUAR World

Design: Matteo Thun & Antonio Rodriguez

Laguna, the bathroom-collection designed by Matteo Thun, Antonio Rodriguez for JAQUAR includes a full range of sanitary, a variety of faucets, a frameless shower box, refined furniture and subtle bath accessories. The series was developed within a period of more than two years and is conceived for private and contract projects.

Laguna is all about combination and lightweight, it's about timeless beauty. High quality ceramic and pure, slim shapes meet numerous possibilities to blend. Faucets, accessories, furniture, shower and bathtub can be composed with various metal finishes or go with oak and walnut wood. While keeping its strong character, the collection includes three colour groups and a wide range of additional parts. Laguna gives room for different moods, looks and dimensions.

Jaquar, Matteo Thun and Antonio Rodriguez follow the same approach in terms of aesthetic, economic and technological sustainability. It is characterized by simplified shapes, warm colors and excellent material, offers a variety of combinations and combines minimalist design and direct functionality.
