NOW Collection for ZWILLING

Designed by Matteo Thun & Antonio Rodriguez

Matteo Thun & Antonio Rodriguez reinterpret ZWILLING's excellent quality. NOW is a new generation of colored knives with a strong personality and a fresh touch, specially developed for gourmet and cook lovers with a young and passionate spirit.

The blade of the NOW knives is made of brushed light copper - the knives are equipped with an ergonomic handle - available in light and dark shades, 'ton sur ton'. Granada red, blueberry blue and lime green cite the colors of nature and form the color groups of the collection. With its timeless shape, NOW is an aesthetic statement that simultaneously guarantees the expertise and functionality of ZWILLING products.

The NOW collection also includes a knife block, colored chopsticks and a cutting board.
